"As long ago as 1905 Sir Walter Raleigh sketched the first plan of this book, and in 1909 Sir Sidney Lee undertook its production. He arranged for the writing of most of the treatises now published, set on foot the first selection of the illustrations, and made additions from his own collections and from fresh researches. In 1911 he was obliged to postpone work upon the book ... Successive editors who took up the task were withdrawn by war work in the course of 1914-15." The Clarendon press has employed Charles Talbot Onions for the completion of the work.

v.17 Gray, Asa, 1810-1888, ed. ... Botany ... 1874. (Card 2)
The first part, Cryptogamia, was printed in or before 1862. Of these parts, Musci, by W. S. Sullivant, was published in a separate edition in 1859, with letterpress in folio to match the plates. Extra copies of the other three parts (Lichenes, Algae, and Fungi), and the plates of Torrey's Phanerogamia were secured by Asa Gray and distributed among botanists. When the volume was finally published in 1874, he also secured copies of Torrey's Phanerogamia, and had the four parts, with the folio plates folded, bound in one volume, with title: U. S. Exploring expedition botany.

Territory of the Pacific Islands.

Pacific Islands (Ter.)

Includes the Marshall, Caroline and Marianas island groups and other smaller islands. Prior to World War II administered by Japan. On July 1, 1947 the islands formally became a United Nations Trust Territory, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, administered by the U.S. From July 18, 1947 to July 1, 1951 administration was delegated to the Secretary of the Navy; from July 2, 1951-Nov. 9, 1952 to the Secretary of the Interior.
From Nov. 10, 1952-May 6, 1962, responsibility was shared by the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of the Interior. On May 7, 1962 all responsibility reverted to the Secretary of the Interior. Local government is under a High Commissioner.

United States exploring expedition, 1838-1842. United States exploring expedition ... 1844-74. (Card 2)
Published under act of Congress of Aug. 26, 1842, which provided: "That there shall be published ... an account of the discoveries made by the Exploring expedition under the command of Lieutenant Wilkes ... which account shall be ... published in a form similar to the voyage of the Astrolabe, lately published by the government of France."
By the same act, the edition was limited to 100 copies. Mr. Wilkes, however, secured copyright on his Narrative of the expedition, under which privilege he published several editions of that part of the reports. Later, also, the authors themselves, or publishers who might be willing to undertake it, were allowed to issue an additional 150 copies of the various reports, and under this arrangement, from 100 to 150 copies of most of the volumes were published in addition to the 100 copies provided for by the government. The official edition however was 100 copies only.

United States exploring expedition, 1838-1842. United States exploring expedition ... 1844-74. (Card 3)
The publication was never completed. Five volumes are unpublished: v. 18. Botany, by Asa Gray; v. 19. Geographical distribution of animals and plants, by Charles Pickering; v. 21-22. Ichthyology; by Louis Agassiz; v. 24. Physics, by Charles Wilkes.
Vol. 18 was partly printed, and still remains in signatures. Part I, Chronological observations on introduced animals and plants, was published in Boston, 1854, and the first half of part 2, Plants and animals in their wild state, Salem, Mass., 1876. The complete work has not been published.
Volumes of unfinished plates—some of them in proof before lettering—are found, without t.p. or other printed matter. The Library of Congress has two such volumes: one of 71 pl. (4 col.) from the atlas to Botany, and one of 32 col. pl., 28 of which belong to the unpublished v. 21-22, Ichthyology, and 4 to v. 12, Mollusca and shells.

Vol. 9, 10, and 11 are author's edition.
Vol. 9 has imprint: Boston, Charles C. Little & James Brown; London, John Murray, 1848.
Vol. 10 has same imprint as in the official edition, but is without "By authority of Congress" on half-title. It has four maps instead of one as in the edition published by the government, and was issued in cloth binding. Vol. 11 has same imprint and date as in the official edition, but contains only the introduction and plates from that volume. The tables are omitted.
Vol. 23, Hydrography, Atlas, v. 1 is dated 1850. The charts (55) are unnumbered, and the list of charts for the two volumes calls for 105 instead of 106 as in the copy dated 1858.

(July 18, 1947) as self-governing dominion of British Commonwealth of Nations. Comprises two major areas separated from one another by North central part of Republic of India: West Pakistan (see information card under that name) and East Pakistan, which consists of eastern Bengal. The capital of Pakistan is Karachi.
(Webster's geographical dictionary) On Aug. 2, 1960 Rawalpindi was made the capital of Pakistan in place of Karachi and the Federal Territory of Karachi was established

"The object of this book is to assist English readers to understand on the one side the motive force and the significance of Zionist work in Palestine, on the other side the conditions under which that work is being carried on, the progress which it has made, and the problems by which it is confronted."—Foreword.
